

CHINA TAISAN: How a textile player maintains margins

Written by Sim Kih
Sunday, 23 May 2010 17:00

---

Apparel brands are asking for more fabric samples as they wish to launch more apparel designs, said Patrick Kan.

FOR CHINA TAISAN, the aggressive expansion of sales channels by top sports apparel brands is a strong signal that the recovery in China's textile sector is sustainable.

The designer for functional polyester fabric is looking to expand into apparel design by tying up with a garment manufacturer.

Its CFO Patrick Kan met investors on Thursday to discuss the company's outlook. Read more...